The Stars in Our Sky

The stars in the sky are grouped into 88 constellations.

On a clear night, when you are away from city lights, you might see lots of stars. If you have ever imagined connecting the stars to make pictures, you're not alone. People have been doing this for thousands of years. The stars that form some of these imaginary pictures are called constellations.

Seeing Stars

Category: Outer Space

TrueFlix Title: Constellations

Project Type: Star Drawing and Story

Project Goal:

A constellation is an imaginary picture of stars in the sky. Many of these pictures are based on ancient myths sometimes called star stories; constellations can show people, such as hunters and ancient gods, or animals, such as lions and bears. But what do these patterns of stars look like to you? Create a unique picture represented by the arrangement of stars in one of the constellations illustrated in the eBook and write a short story that corresponds to the picture.

Get Started:

Choose one of the patterns of stars in a constellation in the eBook. On a sheet of paper, draw the pattern of stars in that constellation. Then, create a new picture that these stars might represent to you—it can be any creature or object. Then write a star story for your constellation.

Home and Browse

The TrueFlix Home screen offers two browse options: a category browse and a thumbnail browse.

The category browse utilizes the two groups of TrueFlix titles on the left and right of the screen: People, Places, and History to the left and Science and Nature to the right. Below these titles are tabs that correspond to each of these two groups' categories. For People, Places, and History, the categories are American Indians, Ancient Civilizations, Biographies, The Civil War, Continents, Information Literacy, My United States, National Parks, The Thirteen Colonies, U.S. Government, U.S. Regions, Women's History, and Westward Expansion. For Science and Nature, the categories are Alternative Energy, Animal Kingdom, Disasters, Earth Science, Ecosystems, Experiments, Extreme Nature, Extreme Science, Farm to Table, Great Discoveries, Health, Human Body, Incredible Plants, Outer Space, Physical Science, and The Solar System. Clicking on one of the categories accesses a category browse screen from which you can choose among thumbnails for all the TrueFlix units in that category. Clicking on any of these thumbnails brings you directly to the title screen for that unit.

The thumbnail browse utilizes the eight large featured TrueFlix thumbnails that rotate at the center of the Home screen and the carousel of thumbnails that rotates at the bottom center of the screen. Clicking on any of these thumbnails brings you directly to the title screen for that TrueFlix unit.

To return to the Home screen, click on the link at the upper-left corner of the screen.
